

Ask God in some prayer time what He wants to do through you. His vision for our life is far beyond what we know but we must START somewhere. Remember it takes time to develop the NEW discipline of being still but God blesses us in our consistency.

God what is your vision for my life?

What do you want me to do?

How do you want to use me?

How do you seek God now? What are you going to change in this area?

Where is your ladder leaning in each category? Do you feel you need to reposition the ladder?

What category do you desire a FRESH revelation in?
